Read The Star

Gentle Hint.
Professional Beggar (In Hardup's office)—I've been out of work for over year, mister, and ain't got the price a ubli's for a Can yer do anything to help me out?
Hardup (magnanimously)—I'd like to,
but I sprained my foot on a collector yesterday.

The above is the likeness of F. L.
Morris, architect and builder, who has made a splendid reputation in his work at Okmulgee. A graduate of the Tuskegee Institute, Mr. Morris has gone out into the world with that ever-dowell spirit which seems to be a virtue with students of that noted school and step by step has climbed up to success with credit to himself and his school. Some of the best buildings in Okmulgee's best business buildings are bearing the trade mark of his work. He does all of his own blue print work and superintends the work from start to finish.

He is ready to do work in any part of the state. Those who contemplate buildings would do well to consult him. Mail addressed to him at Okmulgee will reach him.

Cornered.

"That chauffeur was a great disappointment."
"I thought he would be."
"But you gave him a letter of recommendation."
"Of course. And I advise you to do the same. It's the only way to get him to go peaceably."
